SCAM ALERT

The Social Security Administration will never threaten, scare, or pressure you to take an immediate action.

Scammers continue to impersonate government employees in an attempt to obtain your personal information or money. They may:

- Say there's a PROBLEM or promise a prize.
- PRESSURE you to act immediately.
- Tell you to PAY in a specific way.

Do not give scammers money or personal information – Ignore them!

How to avoid a scam:

- . Remain calm. Talk to someone you trust.
- Hang up or ignore the message. DO NOT click on links or attachments.
- Protect your money. Criminals will insist that you pay in a hard-to-trace manner, such as with a gift card, prepaid debit card, cryptocurrency, wire transfer, money transfer, or by mailing cash.
- Protect your personal information. Be skeptical of a contact you didn't initiate.
- Spread the word. Share your knowledge of Social Security-related scams. Post on social media using the hashtag #SlamtheScam to share your experience and warn others. Visit ssa.gov/scam for more information. Please also share with your friends and family.

Scammers Impersonate the Government

You get a call, email, or text message...

- ▶ They say they're from the Social Security Administration and your benefits will end unless you pay.
- ▶ They say they're from the IRS and you owe taxes.
- ▶ They say you need to give your Medicare number to get a new card.

These are all scams.

Government agencies won't call, email, or text you and ask for money or personal information. Only a scammer will do that.
